II. Eligibility Criteria

Please select an award level. Employer must meet all criteria in selected award level.

Bronze Award

To be considered for the bronze award, the employer must meet the following criteria:

- Have a policy or procedure that allows employees to attend parent-teacher conferences during work time.
- Maintain records that show evidence that employees attended parent-teacher conferences, or provide a signed letter from the human resources director or president/chief executive officer confirming that employees may attend parent-teacher conferences.

Silver Award

To be considered for the silver award, the employer must meet the following criteria:

- Have a policy or procedure that allows employees to attend parent-teacher conferences or take part in school volunteer activities during work time.
- Have a policy or some procedure which tracks employees' volunteer hours.
- Maintain records that show evidence that employees attended parent-teacher conferences or took part in school volunteer activities, or provide a signed letter from a supervisor confirming this participation.
- At least 1% of the employer's workforce with school-age children attends parent-teacher conferences or takes part in volunteer activities on an annual basis.

Gold Award

To be considered for the gold award, the employer must meet the following criteria:

- Have a policy or procedure that allows employees with school-age children to attend parent-teacher conferences, take part in school volunteer activities, or participate in student mentoring activities during work time.
- Establish a mentoring program in conjunction with a local school or district designed for employees to meet with and mentor students to promote academic and social success. Structured mentoring activities may include traditional one-to-one, group, team, or e-mentoring and should be built around regular, frequent contact.
- Have a designated employee who oversees internal coordination of the mentoring program.
- Have a policy or some procedure which tracks employees' volunteer hours and mentoring activities.
- Maintain records that show evidence that employees attended parent-teacher conferences, took part in school volunteer activities, or participated in student mentoring activities, or provide a signed letter from a supervisor confirming this participation.
- At least 1% of the employer's workforce participates in mentoring activities for a minimum one year (or school year) commitment.

III. Describe the school activities employees have actively participated in.
For consideration of silver or gold level recognition, please include the percentage of employees who take part in school activities.
