The requirement to offer two additional courses may be reduced to one by the commissioner of education upon application of a school district with a total high school enrollment of less than 500 students. Science courses shall include at least 40% hands-on laboratory investigations and field work using appropriate scientific inquiry;
 - (D) social studies--United States History Studies Since 1877, World History Studies, United States Government, World Geography Studies, Personal Financial Literacy, and Economics with Emphasis on the Free Enterprise System and Its Benefits;

- (E) physical education--at least two courses selected from Foundations of Personal Fitness, Adventure/Outdoor Education, Aerobic Activities, or Team or Individual Sports;
- (F) fine arts--courses selected from at least two of the four fine arts areas (art, music, theatre, and dance)--Art I, II, III, IV; Music I, II, III, IV; Theatre I, II, III, IV; or Dance I, II, III, IV;
- (G) career and technical education-- three or more career and technical education courses for four or more credits with at least one advanced course aligned with a specified number of Texas Education Agency-designated programs of study determined by enrollment as follows [coherent sequences of courses selected from at least three of the following seventeen [sixteen] career clusters] :
- (i) one program of study for a district with fewer than 500 students enrolled in high school ;
 - (ii) two programs of study for a district with 501-1,000 students enrolled in high school ;
 - (iii) three programs of study for a district with 1,001-2,000 students enrolled in high school ;
 - (iv) four programs of study for a district with 1,001-5,000 students enrolled in high school ;
 - (v) five programs of study for a district with 5,001-10,000 students enrolled in high school ; and
 - (vi) six programs of study for a district with more than 10,000 students enrolled in high school .
- ~~[(i) — Agriculture, Food, and Natural Resources;]~~
 - ~~[(ii) — Architecture and Construction;]~~
 - ~~[(iii) — Arts, Audio/Video Technology, and Communications;]~~
 - ~~[(iv) — Business Management and Administration;]~~
 - ~~[(v) — Education and Training;]~~

(J) speech--Communication Applications.

- (3) Districts may offer additional courses from the complete list of courses approved by the State Board of Education to satisfy graduation requirements as referenced in this chapter.
- (4) The school district must provide each student the opportunity to participate in all courses listed in subsection (b)(2) of this section. The district must provide students the opportunity each year to select courses in which they intend to participate from a list that includes all courses required to be offered in subsection (b)(2) of this section. If the school district will not offer the required courses every year, but intends to offer particular courses only every other year, it must notify all enrolled students of that fact. A school district must teach a course that is specifically required for high school graduation at least once in any two consecutive school years. For a subject that has an end-of-course assessment, the district must either teach the course every year or employ options described in Subchapter C of this chapter (relating to Other Provisions) to enable students to earn credit for the course and must maintain evidence that it is employing those options.
- (5) For students entering Grade 9 beginning with the 2007-2008 school year, districts must ensure that one or more courses offered in the required curriculum for the recommended and advanced high school programs include a research writing component.
